This Is the Day

(Written and sung by: Dennis Drake and Nan Warstler)

CHORUS:

This is the day that we leave each other. This is the day that we've waited for. What can be said about our lives together? What can be said about fun times no more?

Remember back to that first day, people strange in different ways. As we look it seems so long to put our lives into this song.

CHORUS:

Years gone by and friends we knew, time has passed, our love grew. And now that we're here we say our goodbyes and memories will stay the rest of our lives.

CHORUS:

And now that we're here we say our goodbyes and memories will stay the rest of our lives.

ACTIVITIES

Miss Eastside And

Kim Hollinger, Tina Wilmot, Sandy Heffelfinger.

This September three girls competed for the position of Miss Eastside. Tina Wilmot sang "Only Seventeen", Sandy Heffelfinger sang "The Times of Our Lives", and Kim Hollinger sang "Annie's Song". Votes were taken from the many new teachers plus a few other judges. Kim Hollinger was chosen Miss Eastside and her alternate was Tina Wilmot. Kim and Tina had the fun and excitement of getting ready for the DeKalb County Pageant that was held at the Auburn Fair on September 30.

Eight girls competed in the DeKalb County Pageant. Two girls from Eastside, two from DeKalb, two from Garrett, and two from Hamilton.

The events started early in the afternoon with a full makeup class at 12:00 p.m. The swimsuit competition which started at 2:00 was viewed only by the judges. After individual interviews, all of the girls spoke informally to the judges about themselves and world happenings. Then the contestants rushed to Richard's Restaurant at 5:00 p.m. where the judges again talked informally with each girl. After dinner, they got ready for the pre-pageant parade at 7:00 p.m. The pageant started at 8:00 p.m. sharp with all the contestants and last year's queen, Laurie Davis, singing "Sing a Song" and "Put on a Happy Face". After that, each girl took her turn at introducing herself, sponsors, and school. The talent followed shortly. Both Kim and Tina sang the same songs for this pageant as the Miss Eastside pageant. There was an evening gown competition and finally the moment of importance. Sue Call of Hamilton became the 1977 fair queen. Kim Hollinger won the bathing suit competition sponsored by Maxton Motor's, Inc. The girls left that night with many memories and many new friends.

"Our Town"

Learning how to apply make up.

Yvonne Miller

On Friday, November 19 and Saturday, November 20, under the direction of Annacarol Lampe, Eastside presented Thorton Wilder's emotional drama OUR TOWN.

In the first act the stage manager, Fred Wagner, outlined the history of the town, Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, and something of the character of its citizens. Then he carried you into the houses of the Gibbs family (Yvonne Miller, Ron Ladd, Susan Yates and David Koch) and the Webb family (Becky Webb, Tom Kimmel, Laura Bevington and Melissa Pascone.) You arrived at breakfast time and were carried through one entire day in the lives of these good people.

The second act concerned the love affair between young George Gibbs (Dave Koch) and little Emily Webb (Laura Bevington). This culminated in a moving wedding scene backed by a beautiful stained glass window painted by Jim Fetters. The scene contained all those elements of poignant sorrow and abundant happiness.

In the third act we were led to the cemetery on the hill, where many of the townspeople we had come to know so well were patiently awaiting greater understanding. Into their midst was led the bride, a little wishful to go back to life, to live again with her memories. But she was shown how impossible, how futile it is to return. The past cannot be relived. Truth is to be found only in the future.

Spring Musical —

YANKEE DOODLE was presented March 11, 12, and 13 and was directed by Annacarol Lampe and Phil Tavalocci. Some of the grandest and most beloved music ever written by George M. Cohan was combined with a modern tale about a boy (Jeff Wagner) who had to choose between a career in show business and attending West Point. He had some very real doubts about a military career and overblown patriotism. The show took place in New Rochelle, only FORTY-FIVE MINUTES FROM BROADWAY. As the young people rehearsed YOU'RE A GRAND OLD FLAG, for a Fourth of July Celebration, an actor's (Yvonne Miller) agent appeared with a dazzling offer in show business, and we heard GIVE MY REGARDS TO BROADWAY. Mary (Kim Hollinger) our reluctant hero's girl friend, was the daughter of a retired Marine sergeant (Fred Wagner), the school band director. She was heartbroken that Duke was abandoning his plans and careers and apparently about to console himself with another girl. The other girl (Shari Carpenter) sang SO LONG, MARY while Mary and her father sang the lovely duet MARY'S A GRAND OLD NAME. Naturally, the title song YANKEE DOODLE DANDY was included.

GIRLS' STATE

This past summer 776 girls met on the ISU campus for Hoosier Girls' State. Under the sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Eastside delegate is chosen on the basis of essays submitted. Upon arrival at Girls' State, each girl is assigned to a precinct, city, county, and a political party. Two days are spent learning the duties of the various offices, then the campaigns begin, and after the elections Girls' State becomes a mythical state. The highlight of the week's activities was the Honor Day program.

During this week each girl finds a new love for her country. By working together, the girls learn to cooperate, be dependable, honest, and loyal, and many strong friendships are formed, which will never be forgotten.

BOYS' STATE

Dave Kandel, sponsored by the Butler Eagles, and Chris Sipe, sponsored by the American Legion, attended Boys' State this past summer. The boys learned about the many functions of our state government; however, lectures and book studies weren't the stopping point. The boys actually participated in a mock government. City and county officials were elected; a state convention was held, and finally the state officials were selected. This week also involved discipline and responsibility, and Navy and Army cadets drilled the boys each day.

Aside from all the seriousness, time was alotted for recreation, to make new acquaintances, and in general to have fun. This was an experience which Dave and Chris will long remember.

The enrollment of the Science Club for the 1976-77 school year was 56. There were 35 seniors, 9 junior, 7 sophomores and 5 freshmen. During the school year we had three trips planned. On October 30 our first trip was planned to vist Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum at Dearborn, Michigan. After the Christmas holidays, on February 26, our second trip was to be a skiing trip to Mount Wawassee. It had to be canceled at the last minute because of the warm temperatures and melting snow. Our final trip of the year was a visit to the Museum of Science and Industry at Chicago on May 14.

Now that you have seen the rest of the 1976-77 Easterner and turned to the last page, don't keep turning, please read this. There are so many people that have helped put this book together that I don't know where to start. It is next to impossible to put a yearbook together all by yourself, so to these people I give my sincere thanks.

Pat Markle took a good share of the pictures in this book along with Dan Haverstock, Laura Bevington, and some help by Mr. Penix. Mike Bissell and Max Baughman were a great help this year too. They helped with the picture days and helped make layouts during and after school.

I would like to thank Pat Markle for all of her hard work. She was the business manager and took care of all the advertisement and the yearbook sales. Linda Freidenberger was the assistant editor and she also helped a lot. Whenever I needed some fast help, she was there to do it. I'm sorry if I have left out some, but thank you everyone, including the whole annual staff.

Thank you to the administration for the cooperation during the year. Some of the faculty had to name pictures or give us scores. That takes a lot of time from their busy schedules and I thank them. Mr. Williams, thank you also for your help.

One of the most important people on the yearbook staff is our sponsor, Mrs. Hood. She has given of her time to this book and the staff. She has always been very patient with us by not getting upset when we weren't working as hard as we should have been. If it wasn't for her we really wouldn't have a very good book.

I hope that this book has left many good memories and that the staff next year has as much fun putting this together as I did this year. Good luck to everyone, especially Linda.
